

WATERFALL WANDERS IN THE SOUTH CANADIAN ROCKIES

South Canadian Rockies is home to many natural attractions, including a stunning array of waterfalls, many of which are easily accessible by foot or vehicle.

Whether you're on a day trip, or in the area for a few days, take the time to soak in some nature by visiting one (or all!) of these stunning waterfalls.

Crowsnest Pass
(Coleman)

1 STAR CREEK FALLS

2 LUNDBRECK
FALLS

3

3 CASTLE FALLS

Beaver Mines

Pincher Creek

Fort Macleod

Waterton

4 CAMERON FALLS

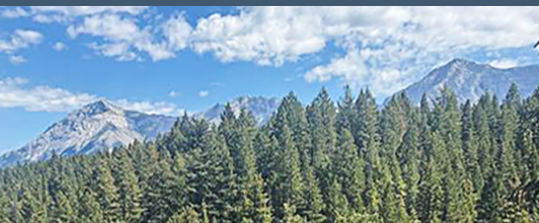

1 STAR CREEK FALLS

Location: Crowsnest Pass (Coleman)

Accessibility: From the parking area in Coleman, hike the newly completed 2 km loop around Star Creek falls.

Description: This family-friendly trail takes visitors on a loop, complete with wayfaring signage to guide the way. Be sure to follow the trail markers to stay on the best route, leading you to stunning views of Star Creek Falls and Crowsnest Mountain.

*Be cautious of cliffs near waterfall

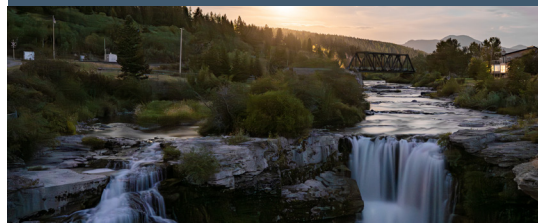

2 LUNDBRECK FALLS

Location: Lundbreck Falls Provincial Recreation Area (Hwy3)

Accessibility: Lundbreck Falls can be seen in all their glory from an easily accessible viewpoint, on Hwy 3. Visitors can camp, or park at the day use area of Lundbreck Falls Provincial Recreation Area and take a short trail to the falls.

Description: One of the most iconic waterfalls in the South Canadian Rockies, Lundbreck Falls is a powerful force of nature that is photo worthy in every season.

3 CASTLE FALLS

Location: Castle Falls Campground in Castle Provincial Park

Accessibility: Access the falls via the campground, either as a registered guest or through the day use area. The falls are a short and easy walk from the parking area.

Description: Stunning crystal clear water, with plenty of natural rock seating. Castle Falls is the perfect place for a picnic and a must see in Castle Provincial Park.

4 CAMERON FALLS

Location: Waterton Lakes National Park

Accessibility: Drive right up to the falls in Waterton Townsite, or walk up the short paved path and stand on the viewing bridge.

Description: One of Waterton's most famous and photographed spots! Cameron Falls is a must-see landmark in Waterton, with plenty of parking and easy accessibility.

